

SUBJECT:
ENGLISH
YEAR: 9
PROGRESS
INTO YEAR
10

LEARNING JOURNEY

Core Knowledge:

- You will explore, in depth a modern novel considering the writer's methods
- You will consider the context of the 1980s and the themes of racism and family
- You will discuss controversial issues such as race and gender and empathise with the writers and their struggles
- You will study poems on identity and analyse writer's methods

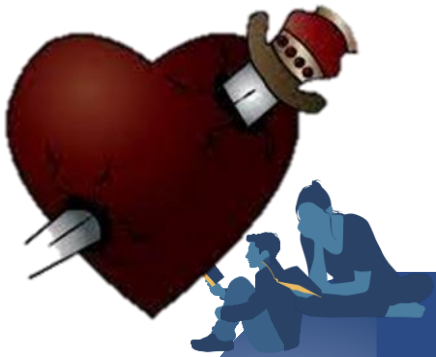

Identity Poetry and My Name is Leon

3

Assessment Points

AFFPOL2 : Language Paper 2-Question 5-Writing a letter in role as Leon-using rhetorical devices, sophisticated vocabulary, a variety of sentences, organisation and structure of writing, sentence construction.

PAR 1: Literature Paper 1 extract on theme/ character-forming an argument, using quotes, analysing writer's techniques, linking to contexts.

Assessment Points

PAR 1– Literature Paper 1: Act 3, Scene 1- Romeo's speech with a focus on love and character-forming an argument, using quotes, analysing writer's techniques, linking to contexts

PAR 2-Literature Paper 1: Act 3, Scene 2-Juliet's speech-focus on Romeo's banishment.- character-forming an argument, using quotes, analysing writer's techniques, linking to contexts

Core Knowledge:

- You will read and study the characters and themes in the play
- You will explore the conventions of tragedy
- You will analyse Shakespeare's language
- You will consider the context of the play and reflect on the attitudes to women and marriage in Elizabethan times

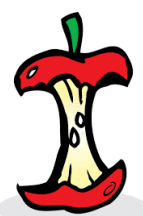

2

Romeo and Juliet

Assessment Points:

AFFPOL1 -Language Paper 2, Question 5-a speech to fellow pupils about a current topic-using rhetorical devices, sophisticated vocabulary, a variety of sentences, organisation and structure of writing, sentence construction.

Animal Farm

1

Assessment Points:

PAR Task 1– Language Paper 2 Q5 - Write an election speech in role as Snowball or Napoleon-using rhetorical devices, sophisticated vocabulary, a variety of sentences, organisation and structure of writing, sentence construction.

Practice PAR Task 2 – Language Paper 1 Q2 on final

Core Knowledge:

- You will learn about the Russian Revolution and how the novel is used as an allegory
- You will learn about rhetorical devices and how to use them in speech writing
- You will learn about the different characters and