

Thank you for your interest in the Temporary teacher of English position and your interest in joining the Archbishop Ilsley family

Proud to be part of the St Teresa of Calcutta Multi Academy Company

Welcome from our Head Teacher

Thank you for your interest in joining Archbishop Ilsley Catholic School.

The ethos of Ilsley is quite simple. As a Catholic school, we want pupils to “let (their) light shine.” We want pupils to believe in themselves and strive to fulfil their vocation, whatever that may be. Pupils are polite and friendly and a real joy to work with. They are the main benefit to working at Ilsley.

We have great facilities: as well as a spacious staffroom (we have briefing twice a week in here), we have a well-stocked library, a sports hall, gym, fitness suite, astroturf and a muga, as well as a swimming pool. The building is well maintained by our excellent site staff.

I hope you find this application pack informative and useful. If you read some of our recent newsletters which you can find here <https://www.ilsley.bham.sch.uk/communication/abi-update/> or scroll through our posts from our Twitter account @ABillsey, you will also get a flavour of what day-to-day life is like at Ilsley. I also recommend you come to visit the school. Simply email recruitment@ilsley.bham.sch.uk and Tara, or one of our English teachers, would be happy to give you a tour and their opinions about what it is like to work here.

I look forward to receiving your application and meeting you in person.

Ciaran Clinton

Welcome from the Head of English

Dear potential candidate

The English Department at Ilsley holds a wealth of experience, enthusiasm and passion. Staff hold high expectations and are committed to the impact English can have on a pupil's future.

As practitioners, we continue to grow our subject knowledge, find new ways to engage pupils and offer exciting extra-curricular for all. We offer the opportunity to teach a range of different classes from KS3-KS5.

I am looking for an excellent teacher to join our friendly team and maintain our excellent reputation.

Tara Heron

Teacher of English
Full time
1 year temporary fixed term contact

A rare and exciting opportunity has emerged to join this highly skilled, high performing and innovative English department.

Do you want in a school where staff happiness and workload are the priority? Do you want to work in a school where your Head of Department and your Headteacher will listen to your views and value you as a person? Do you want to work in a school, where staff are committed, supportive and friendly – they genuinely enjoy each other's company. If the answer to these questions is yes, then why not come and visit Archbishop Ilsley Catholic School?

Archbishop Ilsley are seeking to employ an intelligent, talented and creative English teacher. We follow the AQA specification at GCSE and A level.

The English department offers:

- The opportunity to be part of a supportive and friendly collaborative team environment;

Safeguarding commitment

Archbishop Ilsey is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of all its pupils. We believe that:

- Our young people have the right to be protected from harm, abuse and neglect;
- Our people have the right to experience their optimum mental and physical health;
- Every child has the right to an education and young people need to be safe and to feel safe in school;
- Young people need support that matches their individual needs, including those who may have experienced abuse;
- Our young people have the right to express their views, feelings and wishes and voice their own values and beliefs;
- Our young people should be encouraged to respect each other's values and support each other;
- Our young people have the right to be supported to meet their emotional, social and mental health needs as well as their educational needs. Our school will ensure clear systems and processes are in place to enable identification of these needs. Including consideration of when mental health needs may become a safeguarding need;
- Our school will contribute to the prevention of abuse, risk/involvement in serious violent crime, victimisation, bullying (including homophobic, biphobic, transphobic and cyber bullying), exploitation, extreme behaviours, discriminatory views and risk-taking behaviours.

All staff and visitors have an important role to play in safeguarding young people and protecting them from abuse and considering when mental health may become a safeguarding issue.

Please be aware, as part of our rigorous safer recruitment process, we will undertake the following pre-appointment checks if you are successful on the interview day:

- Verification of identity – including an original birth certificate;
- Eligibility to work in the UK;
- An online search;
- DBS Barred List (if a teacher, cover supervisor or pastoral lead);
- Enhanced DBS check;
- That you are not subject to a prohibition order or GTCE restriction;
- That you are not subject to a TS128 prohibition from a management position (if grade 4 or HOD or SLT);
- Qualifications (including degree certificate and A Level results);
- QTS certificate;
- Overseas check may be made if you have lived abroad;
- Two references will be requested and verified.

This position is only available for candidates who have the right to work in the UK. We regret we cannot sponsor candidates from abroad or provide a work visa.

As a new employee you will be expected to uphold and promote our strong safeguarding culture.
