In A Level Sociology

you should....

After each lesson

Choose something from the 'Read, Listen, Online' section:

Complete one of the suggested activities on the Napier Press website.

- Year 1: Napier Press Sociology Activities – Book One
- Year 2: Napier Press Sociology Activities – Book Two

Every week

Practice at least one past paper exam question and self-mark using the mark scheme.

- Use the AQA website or Tutor2U exam practice to find a past paper. Mark your answer using the official AQA mark scheme or model answers from Revise Sociology.
- Research and make notes on one real-life sociological case study.
- Example topics:
 - A real-life crime case (e.g., Stephen Lawrence case, London Riots 2011).
 - A contemporary social issue (e.g., gender pay gap, impact of social media on identity).
 - A classic sociological study (e.g., Durkheim's Suicide, Willis' Learning to Labour).

Every term

- Look at past paper and model answer booklets
- Complete full past papers under timed conditions – Develop stamina and time management for the real exams.
- Revise key sociological theories & studies daily – Use flashcards, mind maps, exam-style questions.

Throughout the year

- Create Weekly Summary Notes & Mind Maps
- Practice Exam Questions Regularly
- Engage with Extra Reading, Podcasts & Online Resources
- Create a Revision Plan & Stick to It
- Revisit previously learnt topics more than once and apply up to date research
